Account Management

Our company is managed by Australian personnel (in both the Philippines and in Australia). We closely coordinate both locations to facilitate the smooth transition of all Filipino workers into Australia. We strive to provide our services to the highest standards. Clients are led through our systemised recruitment process with FLB taking the processing hassles off our clients.

Our International client servicing structure means that our clients have one point of contact in Australia, and our Australian Recruitment Partners and Filipino recruitment and administration staff use the latest Internet communication technologies to facilitate a seamless recruitment process for our clients.
